ALBERTA BOYS ARE WINNERS

Vegreville Youths Are Swine Club Champions
at Esai Fair

Edmonton Bulletin

TORONTO, Nov. 20.—Western Canada attendance at the Royal Winter fair is jubilant over the fact that prairie provinces made a pretty clean sweep of the Canadian championship contests in Junior livestock club contests conducted here annually by the Canadian National Fairways in co-operation with federal and provincial agricultural authorities.

Alberta won both Dominion level championships in the swine and cattle club contests of the C. N. F. against teams from the other provinces, the new Canadian Swine club champion being Robert Wylie and W. E. Schmidt, from Vegreville, and the new Canadian cattle club king are two boys from Vegreville, Alberta, Vernon and Berden McKeigh, both of them.

In addition to these wins by Alberta, the first place championship in the horse taken by Alberta, Saskatchewan and Ontario, and the championship in the sheep
club, with the scores of 666, 663 and 661, indicating how close the contest was, the other teams were from New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and British Columbia in order of marking.

Alberta won the Canadian Junior livestock club contest in

WHAT ABOUT WOMEN?

The city has done the right thing in securing the old immigration hall to be used as relief headquarters, and the Minister of Immigration does thanks for having put the building promptly at the disposal of the civic authorities, at the cost of some inconvenience to the department. No person should be allowed to go hungry or bedless in Edmonton, or without shelter from the weather.

Provision is thus being made for men who may find themselves in desperate circumstances. What about women who have no homes and are unable to find employment? They, too, must be saved from destitution. The problem of providing for them in this time of economic difficulty, but it must be faced and solved, and this should be done without delay.

Here is an opportunity for women's organizations to give the city authorities help which cannot be so effectively given from any other quarter.

THE REAL PROBLEM

While no official announcement has been made, Ottawa dispatches say that the prairie Premier has not gone there so much to get help for the wheat farmers as to get help for the wheat farmers. The Premier, it is stated, wants the Dominion to assume or to share the responsibility of the provinces shouldered in connection with the operations of the Wheat Pool.

A good case can be made out that the provincial government should take on a share of this load, if not all of it, and it is quite in order that the case should be presented. But the question of the Wheat Pool's monopoly is not the major problem that confronts western agriculture, for the one which should give first consideration from provincial and federal authorities.

It is more important to set the western farmer on his feet, or enable him to get on his feet, than it is to extricate the provincial government from the difficulty into which they fell by guaranteeing the losses of the Wheat Pool. If the farmer is helped into more prosperous ways, the losses of the Wheat Pool will be a thing of the past.

But unless a basic change is made in the conditions and prospects of western agriculture, the farmer will have the profits out of which to pay the losses.

IN QUEST OF BUSINESS

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, in co-operation with the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, is sponsoring an excursion of business men from Canada to South America. The plans are that the party will leave Halifax on one of the fine new steamers of the Canadian National service early in March, arriving there on the return trip on April 20th.

The steamer will call at ports in Cuba, Trinidad, Brazil, Uruguay, the Argentine and Bermuda. From Buenos Aires the excursionists may make a side trip across the continent to Valparaiso, Chile, on the trans-Andean railway. Their visit to the Argentine capital will be timed to enable them to attend the British Empire Fair, which is to be opened by the Prince of Wales.

While those will be welcomed who go only for the pleasure of the cruise, the object is to encourage trade relations with the peoples of the southern continent, and it is expected that a large number of Canadians who are engaged in export and import trade will make the trip.

South America is about twice the size of the Dominion, and the trade relations with that continent are already large and have been growing very rapidly. Canadian exports to Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Cuba and Uruguay last year amounted to $20,000,000, while our imports from the same countries totalled $16,000,000.

That there is an indefinitely large opportunity for the increase of trade in these quarters is shown by the fact that Argentina alone imports $20,000,000 worth of goods per year. The countries in South America are engaged mainly in the production of farm products, raw materials, making them particularly promising fields for the sale of manufactured goods. The proposed tour should help to strengthen the position of Canadian manufacturers among the buyers of that continent, with resultant benefits to industrial and all other interests in the Dominion.

THE SPREAD IS TOO WIDE

Figures which have been compiled by a service organization show that from August 1929 to September 1930 the price level of field grains in Canada declined 45 per cent.

Had there been a corresponding drop in the prices of other commodities, or if the Canadian farmers had not so extensively engaged in grain growing, this subsidence of grain prices would have reacted with proportionately less severity upon the farmer, and therefore upon the community.

But the prices of other things have not gone down in keeping with the farmer's reduced buying power. Hence he has been obliged to curtail his buying. And because he cut down on his purchases, thousands who depended for work and wages upon his continued buying have also had their buying power or have had it reduced.

That, basically, is what is wrong with conditions in Canada. This being predominantly an agricultural country and grain growing the big branch of present-day farming, the slump in grain prices dislocated general business all the way from the retail shop to the manufacturing establishment.

Obviously, what is needed to restore the balance of things is that the farmer's buying power be increased or that the price level of non-farm-produced commodities be brought within reach of his present buying-power. Undoubtedly there will be movements in both directions, but until normal relations are once again established.

While the spread between grain prices and other commodity prices is wide, and has been widening for more than a year, that fact does not invite despair nor would it be prudent for any individual to stand from that standpoint, and shape their policies to help bring about the needed readjustment.

The files of the Bulletin unfortunately do not contain copies of the issue of Saturday, Nov. 20, and Saturday, Nov. 18, 1890. It is therefore impossible to reproduce the news items covering that period of two weeks forty years ago.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Telegraphed from Winnipeg: The results of the guerrilla tactics adopted by the Boers have not been important. The war has divided down into a game of tag, with the forces of British cavalry trying to catch detachments of Boers who confine their operations mainly to raiding depots and communication lines.

Snow did $20,000 damage in Vancouver.

A band of Apache Indians attacked a Mormon colony in Mexico.

Rev. Campbell Morgan of London has decided to take the place of the late Dwight L. Moody at Northfield.

The sanitary condition of Pekin is adding another to the perils of the allied forces there. Smallpox now threatens to sweep the city.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mexico City—One hundred people, including the chief of police, were killed in election riots in Puebla.

Ottawa—The C.N.R. is asking for a charter to build from Lloydminster to Brudenheim.

The Canadian Northern Western Railway Co., is applying for a charter to build north-westerly from Edmonton to the Peace River country.

London—One thousand militant suffragettes invaded parliament, and 116 were arrested in connection to restore order.

Rev. O. D. Fridge, the new pastor of Strathcona Baptist church, will be welcomed on Sunday next.

Athena—Former premier Venizelos has gone into voluntary exile, his party having been beaten in the elections.

Here is something for the propagandists of clerical policy to ponder. There have been many rumors of late in the financial press to the effect that, owing to the enormous burden of the war debt, Germany will be forced to make a radical reorganization of principal and interest, and this, of course, preliminary to her actually repaying it.

In an illuminating and closely-reasoned article recently, Mr. William Bellie deals with the matter. He points out that the war debt is the burden of the "international" system, that is, the burden of the world, and that the burden of the war debt is the burden of the world, and that the burden of the war debt is the burden of the world.

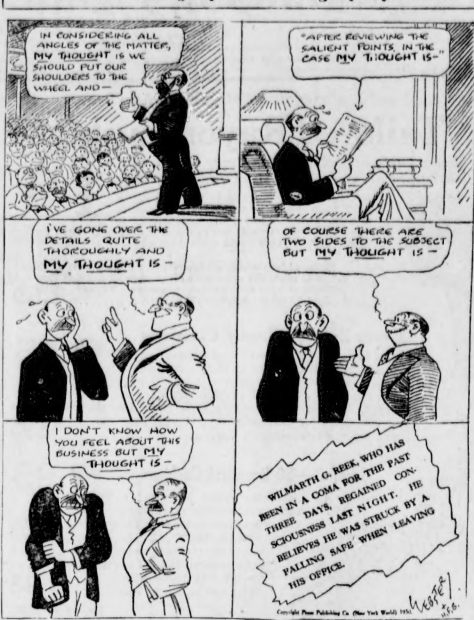

His guess of what will occur is that England will be some considerable time in coming to terms with the payments to England and France for the war debt, and that beyond that point there will be no letup for Germany.

It is an interesting theory and should turn the attention of financiers to the activities of international bankers functioning from New York—Vancouver Province.

LEARNING LONGER LIVING

While the average length of life is fifty-eight years, there are many people who live to be much older. It is estimated that there are in the United States and Canada over five thousand people who are over one hundred years old. I would like to let you know that it is possible that many of those who are reaching this age may live to reach the century mark.

One noticeable thing about those who have reached ninety or a hundred years is that they are mostly all this people. In other words, it is possible for a stout person to reach the three score and ten mark. It is possible for a thin person to reach the three score and ten mark. An interesting fact is that nearly all of the men who reach this age are in perfect health.

If you want to live to a ripe old age, you must avoid overeating, learn to cut down on the consumption of food, and eat the right kind of food. You must eat more raw and cooked vegetables and fruits. It is important that you eat the right kind of food. You must eat more raw and cooked vegetables and fruits. It is important that you eat the right kind of food.

It is not enough to live a long life, but it is desirable to be healthy during the days when you are in this world. You want to be able to enjoy your life. You should begin right now to live right. You should begin right now to live right. You should begin right now to live right.

New Zealand Butter Being Held Up

AWAITS PRICE RECOVERY IN COLD STORAGE

Farmers Say Shipments do Not Come With Anti-Dumping Clause

Canadians Press
VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 26.—Large shipments of New Zealand butter are now held in cold storage in British Columbia awaiting price recovery, and by reason of the absence of a stated price, do not come within the provisions of the anti-dumping clause of the Tariff Act. It was stated before the present meeting here of the advisory board on the part of the Institute of the province.

The British Columbia butter market was now depressed far below the cost of production. It was stated, largely because of the Australian butter, a secondary factor of great immediate importance being the recent importations from New Zealand.

The board passed a resolution reporting negotiations between the Canadian government and the governments of Australia and New Zealand, and asking the minister of trade and commerce that immediate steps be taken to protect the dairy sheep and allied industries from what was described as "dumping."

Side of Mount Threatens to Bury Village

Associated Press

GLARUS, Switzerland, Nov. 26.—The village of Lanthal, near here, is being greatly alarmed at a gradual movement of one side of Kithersstock mountain, which has shown increasing instability for more than a year.

A gradual landslide, at first very slow, has doubled its speed, until now it is estimated that a hundred thousand cubic meters of earth are moving down the village at the rate of one centimeter about two-fifths of an inch a day.

Waterers with telephones have been stationed at different points on the mountain and measures have been taken to evacuate threatened parts of the village as soon as is necessary.

Hayden, who was crown prosecutor for the Drumheller judicial district, stating that in Mr. Hayden's passing away the bar and community has suffered a distinct loss.

His Lordship heard the application of W. R. Sanderson, solicitor for the Whitlock Lumber Co. Ltd., versus Alberta Coal Co. for an adjournment.

A decree absolute in the Clappison versus Clappison divorce case at the request of the plaintiff solicitor was set aside.

Court opened Tuesday morning with the swearing in of the jury composed of H. F. Dwyer, William Van Loon, Frank Barker, C. W. Smith, W. J. CHRISTMAS will be different this year if you do this

THE WAY to make your Christmas shopping easy is to look at the advertisements in the daily newspapers. You will find in them a host of helpful suggestions.

Instead of tramping aimlessly from—shop to shop — and from counter to counter — inspecting thousands of articles displayed for the holiday trade, turn to the advertising columns of your favourite newspaper and be guided by the most direct route to the desired purchase.

Wasted time and wearied steps are thus eliminated and your shopping is done to much greater advantage.

You are puzzled about what to give Father or Mother; it is hard to decide what to buy for seven-year old Betty; you find it difficult to select a present for the best friend and the older folks. No matter what your gift problems, and we all have the same problems at Christmas time, the advertisements in the daily newspapers will help you solve them. Reading the Christmas sales messages in your daily newspaper will save you time, energy and money. Read them every day.

Turn to them now and benefit by the assistance which retailers and manufacturers offer to solve all the puzzles that arise out of your Christmas shopping. The best and choicest wares of all the world are available in the shops today.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

DEPRIVATIONS ARE NATURAL AND EFFECTIVE PUNISHMENTS. From the frequent realization that consider spanking and shaming ineffective punishments, more baby readers have drawn the erroneous conclusion that I am opposed to punishment. Far from it, I do not think that the child should be allowed to follow his own sweet will. Children learn by their mistakes and their mistakes have a natural or artificial penalty. They learn nothing if their mistakes go unpunished. I take exception to no punishment meted to them.

Disciplining Baby
In the adult world we have outgrown the whiplash and a spank of punishment, and it is time we were progressing to the abolition of physically painful punishment in the home. We teach the baby in various ways that some of the things he does are undesirable and are to be repressed. We do this by repeatedly telling him that he is doing wrong. It is understood that he cannot learn the lesson by the sound of the word alone. If we cannot remove the situation or the baby, we remove the sound of the word and again tell him that learned that the accomplishment of his aim is impossible.

Punishment by Disapproval
Given the young baby is able to understand disapproval, and since approval is one of the motivations of human conduct, disapproval is a powerful deterrent of undesirable behavior. Baby is heartbroken when he is told that he is doing wrong. From the moment he goes away howling and crying he is in a state of mind that will not allow him to repeat the act. Baby is a child who is not yet old enough to be even slightly better than a good boy. By discipline he is learning that his behavior has been spoiled and he is endeavoring to show that he is not.

If a child is punished by such a simple punishment, it is either to cause of more violent acts to which he has been conditioned, or because the mother is seeking for no less than a child to obey the commands of a parent. Baby is a child who is not yet old enough to be even slightly better than a good boy. By discipline he is learning that his behavior has been spoiled and he is endeavoring to show that he is not.
